Submitting to your faculty Turnitin assignment in Amathuba

Step 1: Find and agree to the UCT Honour Pledge

When you access the assignment for the first time, you will be required to agree to the UCT Honour Pledge prior to being able to view the assignment. Click on the course in your My Courses widget on your Amathuba home page.

In the course home page, click the UCT Honour Pledge in the Course Content widget.
In the Content tool that opens, click the UCT Honour Pledge_Quiz topic in the table of contents, then click the Open Checklist button.

Accept the UCT Honour Pledge by checking the box to indicate that you understand and acknowledge the statements presented and agree to be bound by them, then click the Save button.

After clicking the Save button, you are presented with confirmation (date and time) of having completed the checklist item. Click Cancel to return to the Checklist tool home page.

Please note:

Given the seriousness of infringing the academic integrity guidelines at UCT, we have included an Honour Pledge in our course. This pledge is your commitment that in all the assessments of this course, you will complete them with honour and respect for the UCT policies on academic integrity and are cooperating with the set standards of our university.

Please agree to all the statements which follow, as a solemn promise of your commitment to honesty in all the assessments you will take throughout this course. Checking the box confirms that you accept the UCT Honour Pledge.

- I know that plagiarism is a serious form of academic misconduct.
- I have read the document about avoiding plagiarism, am familiar with its contents and have avoided all forms of plagiarism mentioned there.
- Where I have used the word of others, I have indicated this by the use of quotation marks.
- I have referenced all quotations and properly acknowledged ideas borrowed from others.
- I have not and shall not allow others to plagiarise my work.
- I declare that this is my own work.
